Tuesday, May 8

YFL Icebreaker 6:30 p.m.

Meet in the Mills House Hotel lobby between 5:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. to then walk to the nearby Roof-Top Pavilion Bar for appetizers and drinks, and enjoy the most picturesque place to pair savory cuisine with Charleston's harbor and skyline.

Wednesday, May 9

YFL Social Trip to Cypress Bay Plantation 4:00 p.m.

Individual $25; Couple $35

Don't miss an exciting outing to the breathtaking Cypress Bay Plantation with the Burris family, who are a past Tree Farmer of the Year. Enjoy dinner and a tour of this 2,300-acre tree farm that models a commitment to provide forest aesthetics, protect watersheds, promote recreational use, and create wildlife habitat, food and shelter plots, wetlands, and ponds.

Thursday, May 10

YFL Process-Modeling Workshop 2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Forest Landowners of all ages are invited to attend this informative session where CPA and tax attorney Henry Barclay will moderate an open discussion between senior and junior groups of Forest Landowners about practical ways to improve communication and perpetuate values in inter-generational land ownership.
